William Penn High School

New Castle, Delaware

"What is time? The shadow on the dial, the striking of the clock, the running of the sand, day and night, summer and winter . . ." Freshman to Senior years—
this is what we hope to capture in this
*Penn

Before

After

The Time Is . . . Morning

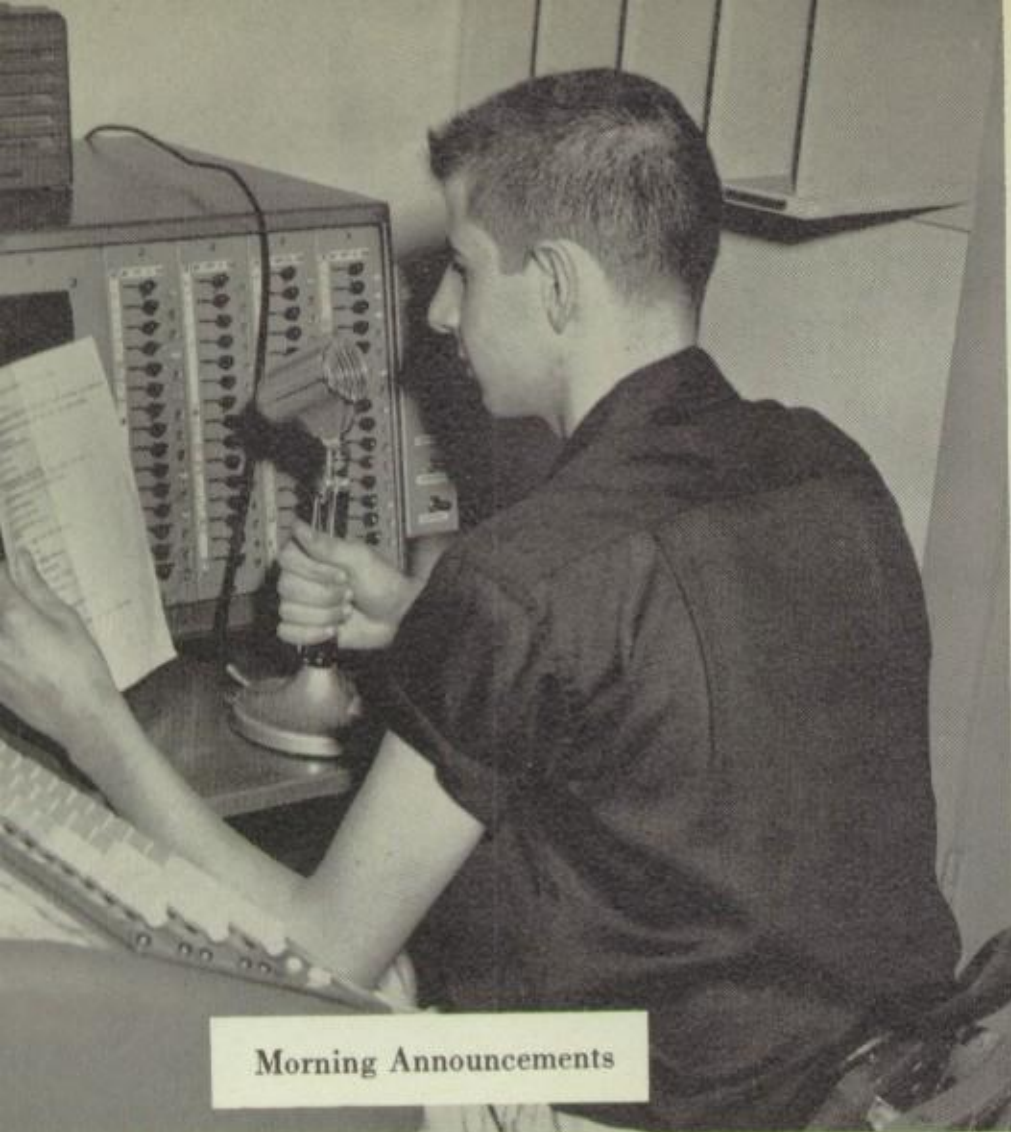

The People

You may delay, but Time will not

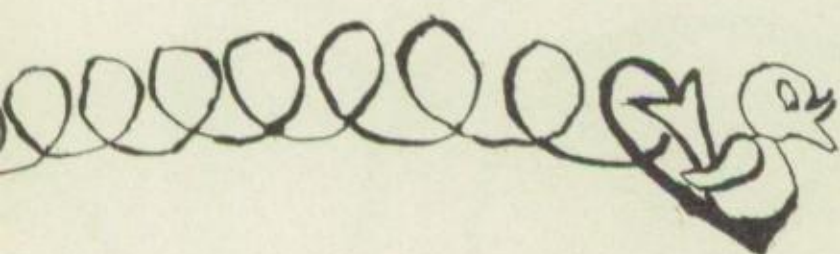

Time heals all wounds

Morning Announcements

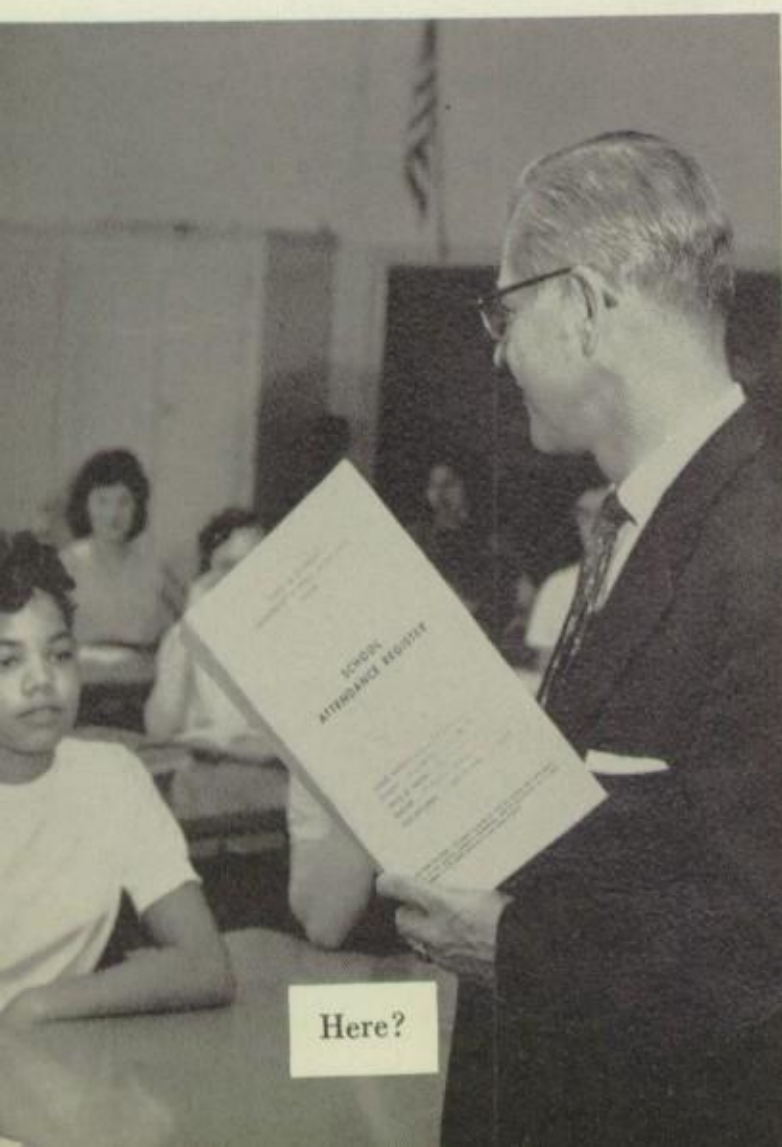

Time and the hour runs

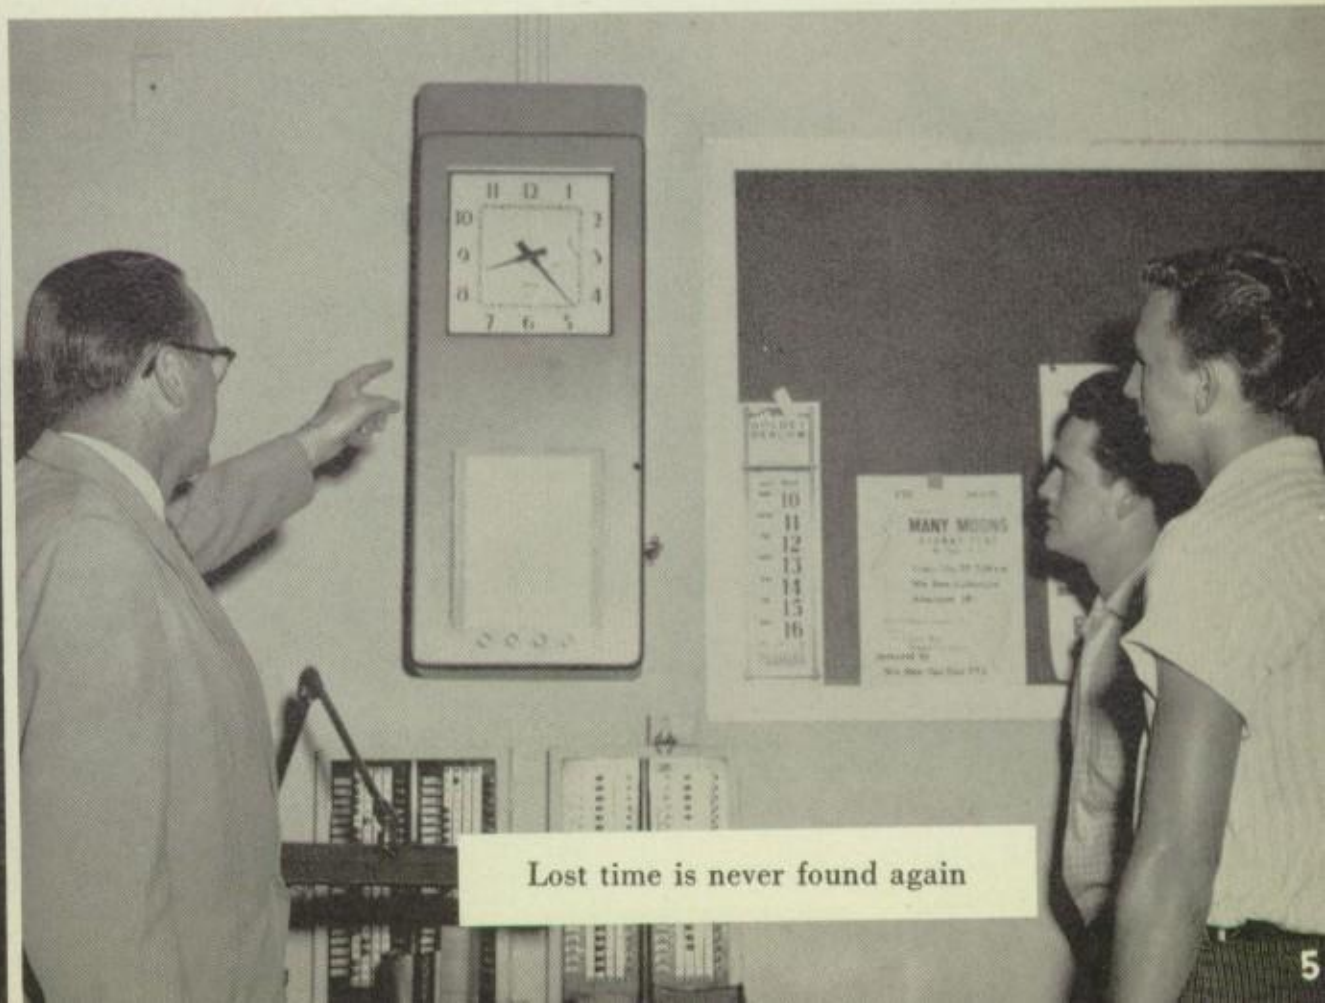

re . . . You

The Place Is . . . Here

Here?

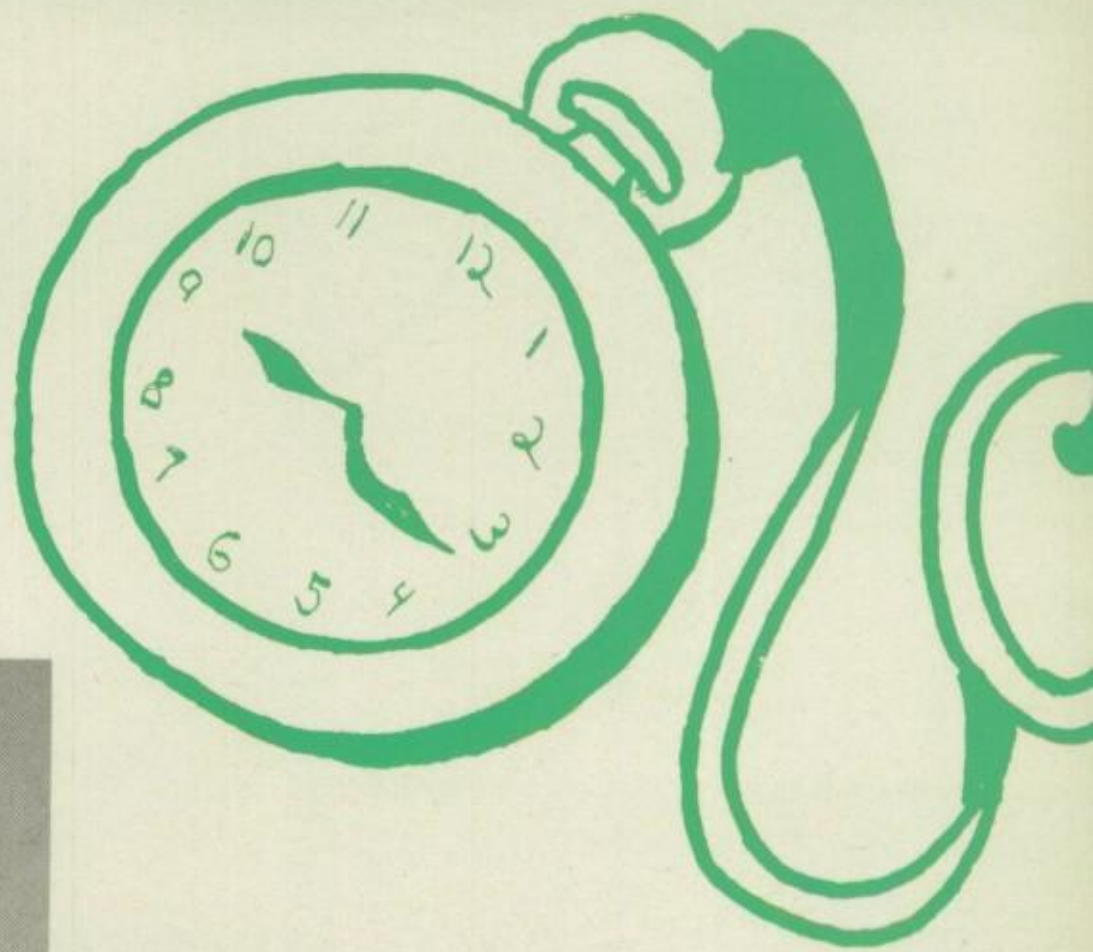

Lost time is never found again

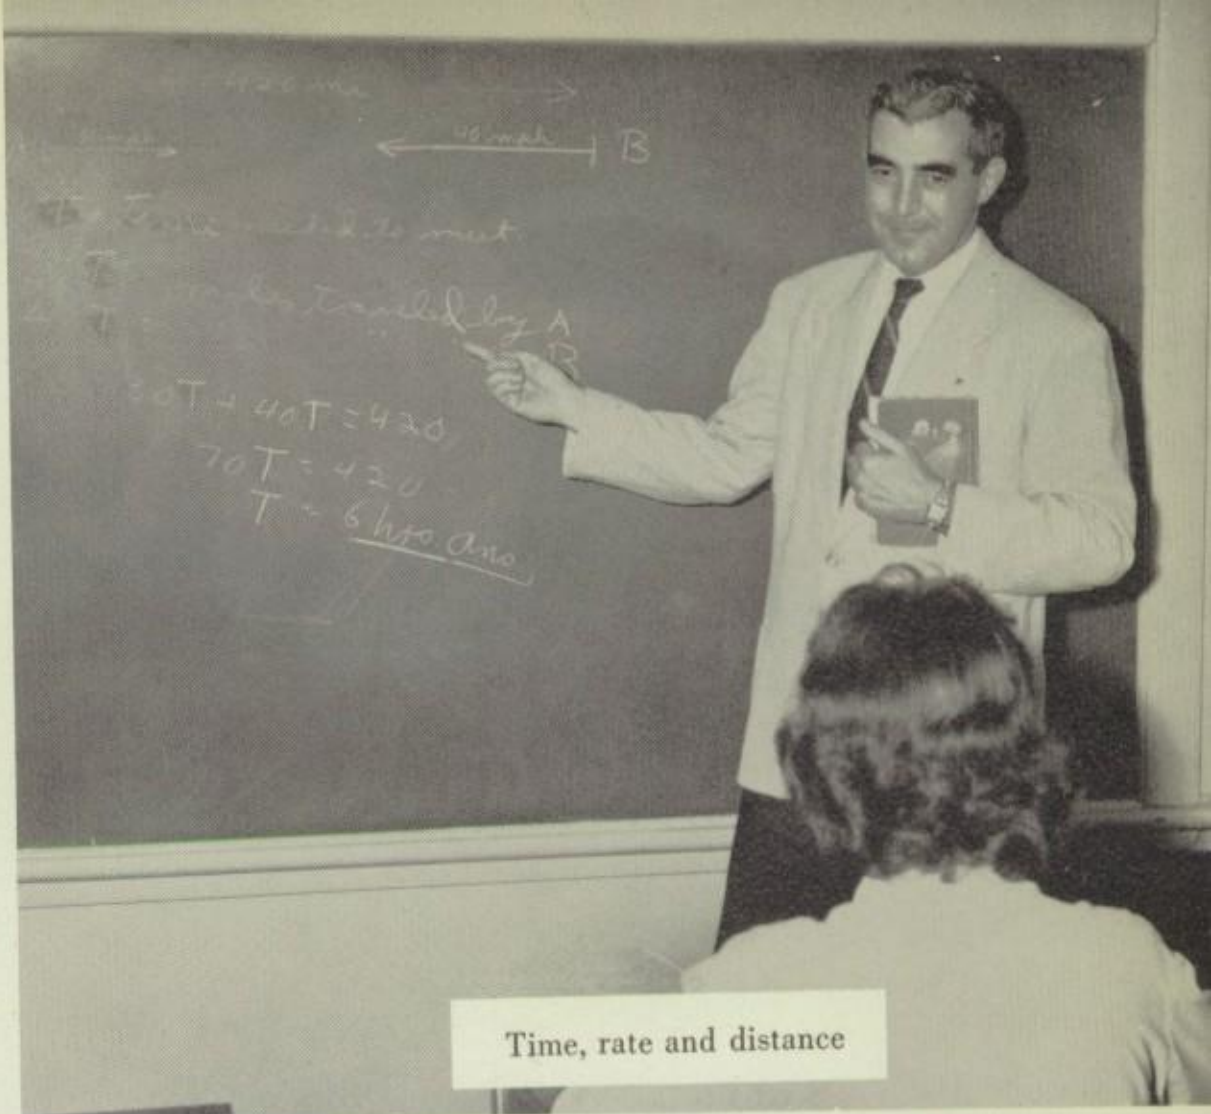

Time ripens all things, No

Time marches on, on, on . . .

Two-minute sales speech

Time, rate and distance

Time has taught us a lesson.

Of candied apple, quince, and plum and gourd

Home Economics

What time is the party?

Time and the hour runs through the roughest day

Industrial Arts

What are you printing?

Is it hot enough?

Will it be functional?

Will it float?

Senior

Laughter rang in the auditorium on the nights of November 20 and 21, as the Class of 1960 presented the comedy "Beauty and the Beef," by William Davidson. The excellent performances of the cast were under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Cline and student directors, Cheri DeLong and Judy Grose. Miss M. Skene and Dorothy Southby were in charge of the make-up.

The play tells the story of a pretty new student at Winnepagushi High. Ginny, the student, tries to hide the fact that she is a brain, so that the boys will steer toward her instead of steering clear of her. The unfolding plot becomes very exciting, especially when the entire football team is poisoned the day before the biggest game of the season.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The Class of 1961 spent a successful and prosperous year, which was a result of hard work on the part of the students and the class advisors, Mr. Maynard Reinbold, Mr. Harold Barr, Mrs. Florence Newton, Miss Maudellen Skene, Mr. William Britton, and Mrs. Marlette Petze. As business advisor to the class, Mr. John May did an extraordinary job, as he has always done.

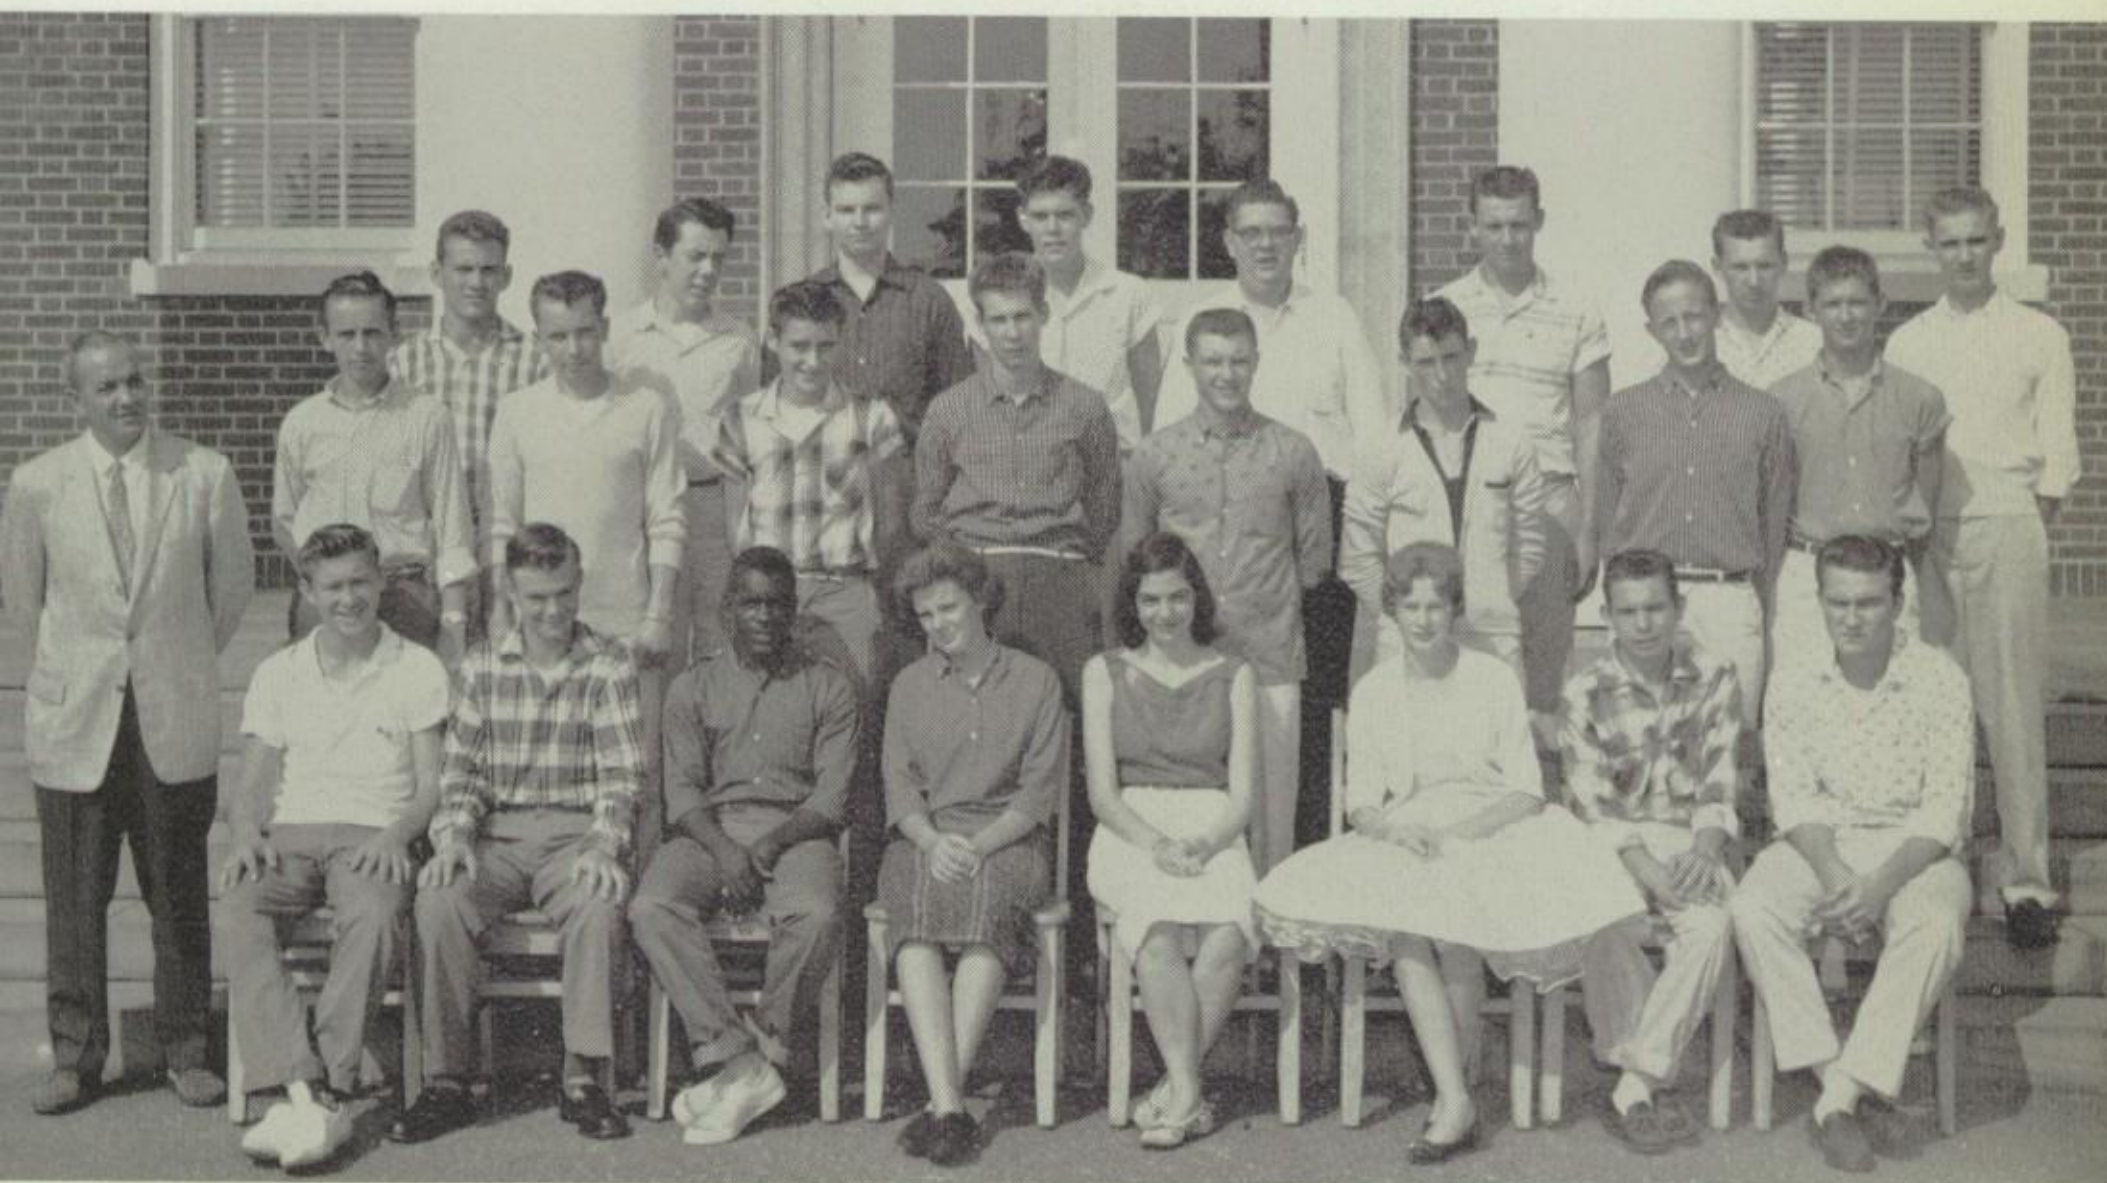

This year the class officers were Kimber Shoop, president; Bunny Proud, vice-president; Mary Fondren, secretary; and Barbara Seddon, business manager.

Many various projects were undertaken by the class to increase the treasury. The largest of these projects was the selling of cakes. Fruit cakes were sold for Thanksgiving and Christmas. Easter cakes were sold in March, along with Mother's Day cakes in May. They sponsored the annual An Tostal Dance. The class also received the profit from the William Penn pen and pencil machines. The money which was added by this year's junior class will be used to help pay senior expenses.

Mr. Jack Graybeal did a meritorious job as director of the Junior Play, which was presented by the class in April.

Football

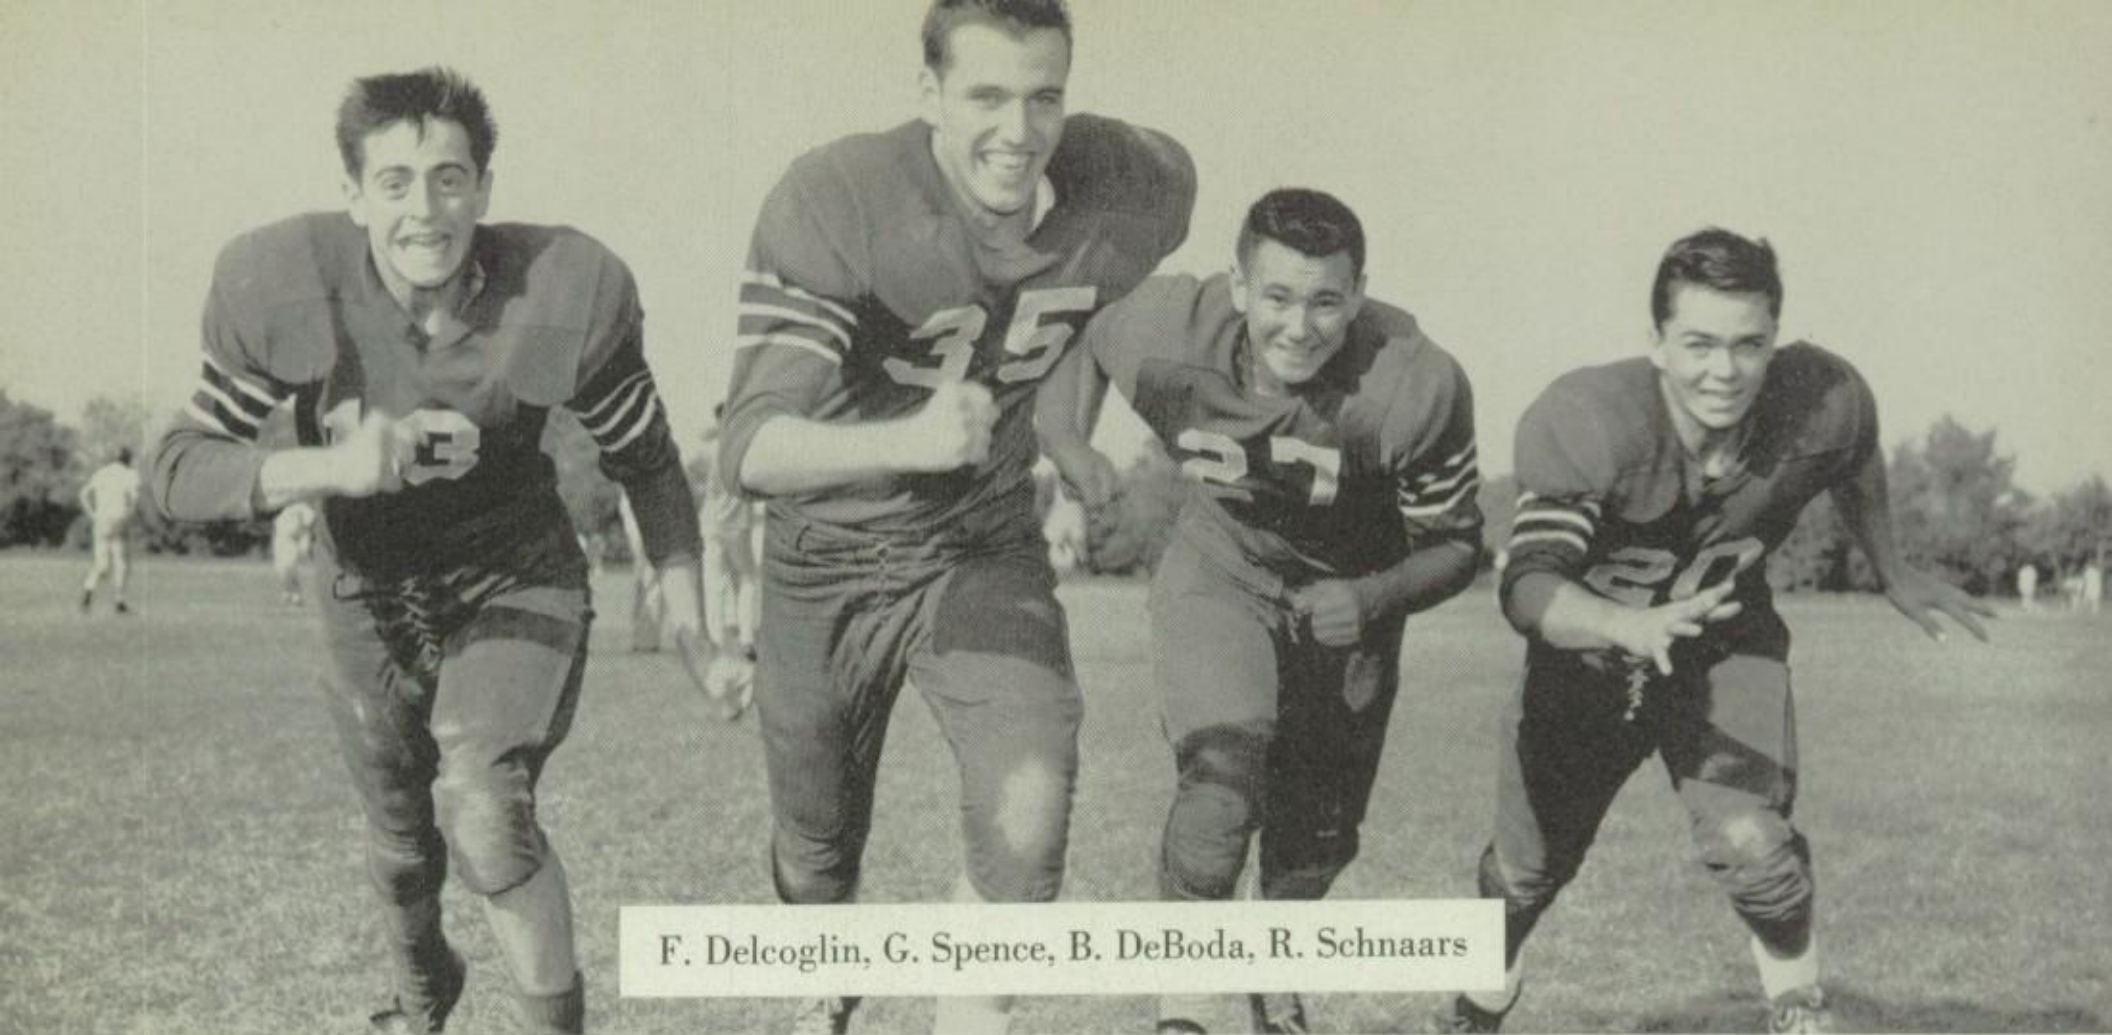

The Colonial football team of 1960 broke even with a record of four wins, four losses, and one tie. Three of their four losses were by less than one touchdown. The team was hampered by a lack of speed which handicapped them against the speedier teams of the Blue Hen Conference. Preston Burris, Colonial tackle, was selected for the All-State Football Squad for the second straight year. Next year's Co-Captains are Bill Ford and Tom Sharpe.

Hockey

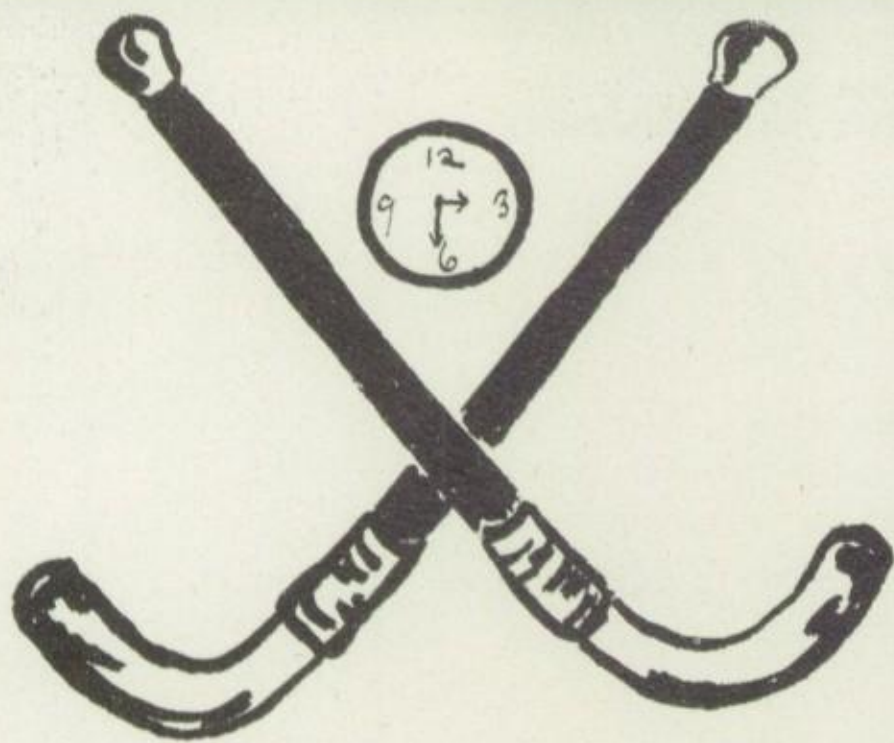

The William Penn Hockey Team of 1959 had the most successful year in the history of this girls' sport at our school. Under the excellent leadership of Coach Grace Harrison and Co-Captains June Smith and Henrietta Sobiech, the hockey team forged on to win six games, tie one and lose one by only two goals.

At the end of the season, the members were given their first banquet. Coach Grace Harrison hopes that this banquet will become an annual tradition.

Wrestling

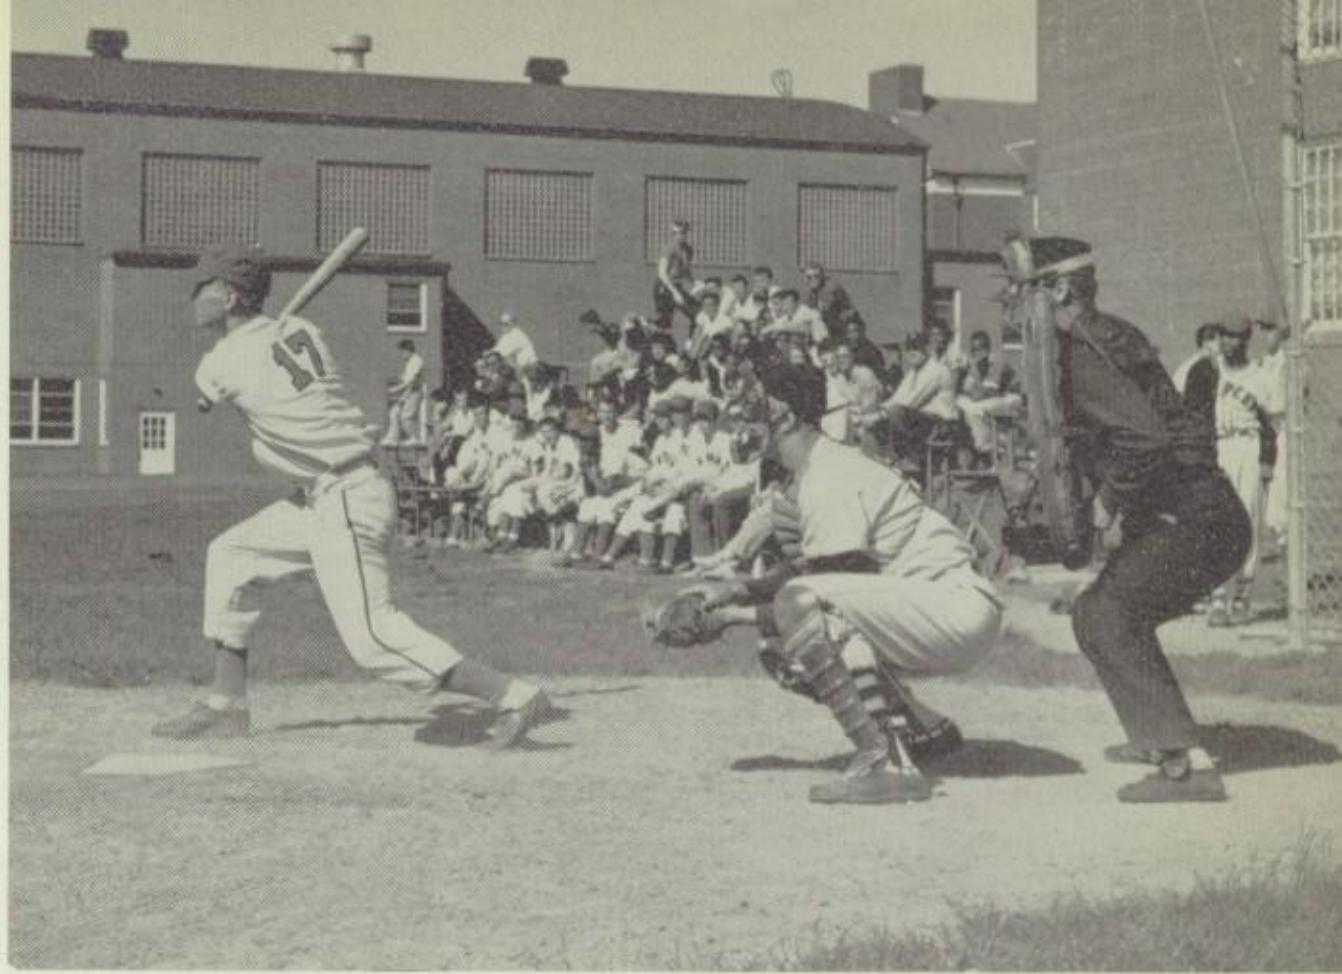

This was the first year that the wrestling team has participated in the Blue Hen Conference. Due to a lack of experience in many weight classes, the team fared poorly this season. The future of the wrestling team looks bright, however, because of the great number of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors on the team. This year's varsity squad was composed of underclassmen in every weight class with the exception of two.

Activities

Senior Dinner Dance

The first annual Senior Class Dinner Dance was held in the Gold Ballroom of the Hotel Du Pont on Friday, February 19. The Serenaders provided the musical entertainment for the evening. The Dance Committee, made up of Jean Gonzalez, Mary Ann Betts, Don Graulich, Ben De Boda, Sandra Oliver, and Gerry Rutter, worked under the supervision of Mr. Eugene Bucher to make this senior class event a success.

Mike Piovoso, the class president, gave the welcoming speech followed by the invocation given by Ben De Boda, the student council president. After dinner, which was served at approximately 7 o'clock, the students danced until 1 A.M. This dance was probably the most memorable event for the seniors of 1960.

Argus

The Argus staff is responsible for the writing, printing, and circulation of the school newspaper, The Argus. Under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Cline, the members of the staff learn every phase of journalism.

Last August Karl Voight, who was chosen as the first winter exchange student from William Penn, went to Liege, Belgium, where he lived with a family until January.

Last summer Diane Hoppes, who was chosen as an American Field Service exchange student, went to Istanbul, Turkey, where she lived with a family until the end of August.

Under the direction of Mr. White, who guides and directs the Work Experience program, approximately thirty-five seniors attend school and work in various businesses in the afternoon. These students work in the field for which they are training and which they plan to enter when they go out into the business world.

MELBA BARBER

Melba Barber is a senior who arrived at William Penn from San Antonio, Texas, in the middle of the year. She is taking the Academic course and plans to go to college.

MR. BRITTON

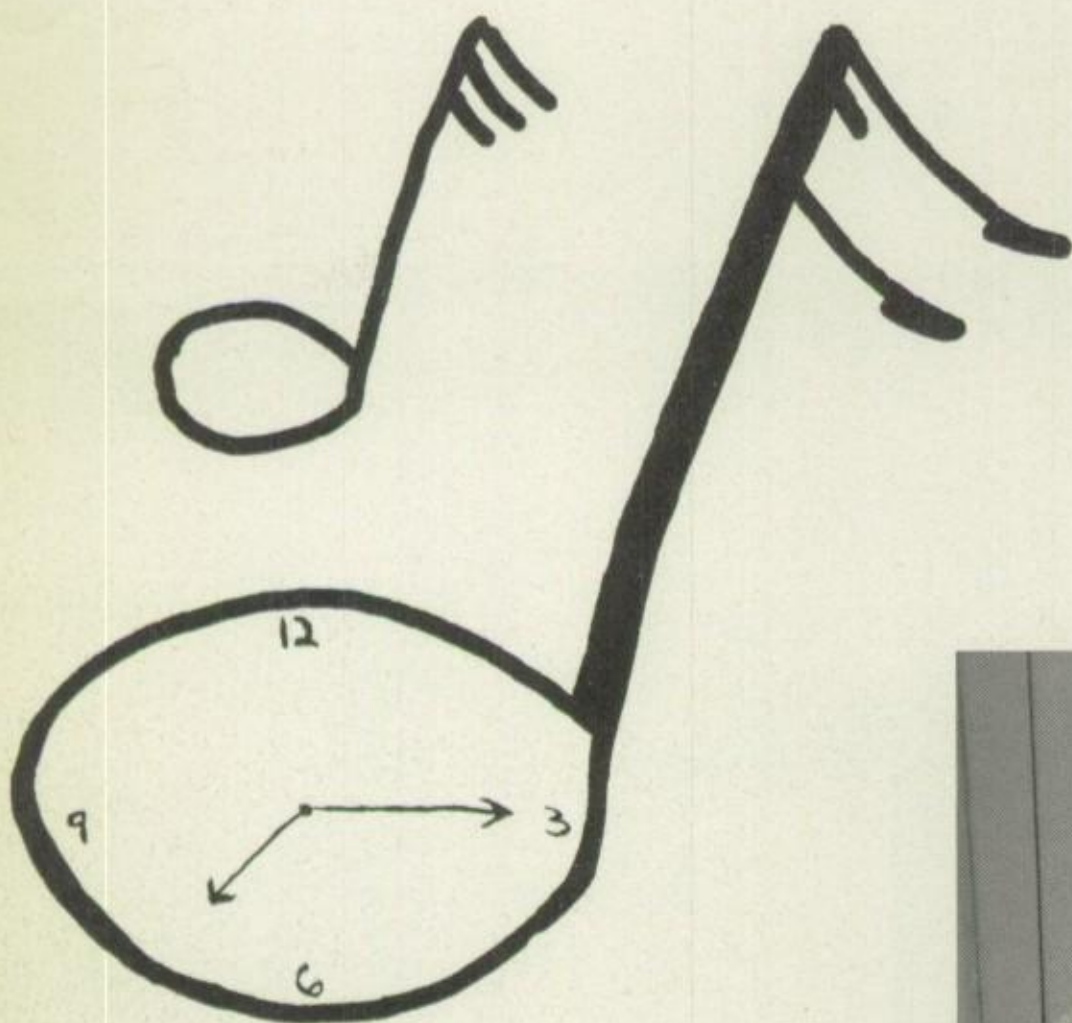

Mr. William Britton came to William Penn to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mr. John Edwards. Mr. Britton is a member of the Social Studies Department.

New Arrivals

A Cappella Choir

The William Penn A Cappella Choir, under the capable direction of Mr. Charles H. Reid, performs a service to the community as well as the school. In serving the community, the choir sings for local churches, gives annual Christmas and Spring Concerts, and sings on Palm Sunday and at the Baccalaureate Service. Among the social activities which the Senior Choir Council plans are the Halloween Party, Christmas carolling, and a semi-formal banquet in June, which is the highlight of the year's activities.

 KEN SCHILLING—Business Manager
 JANET FIKE—Secretary
 GAIL EHART—Treasurer
 PHIL WILSON—President

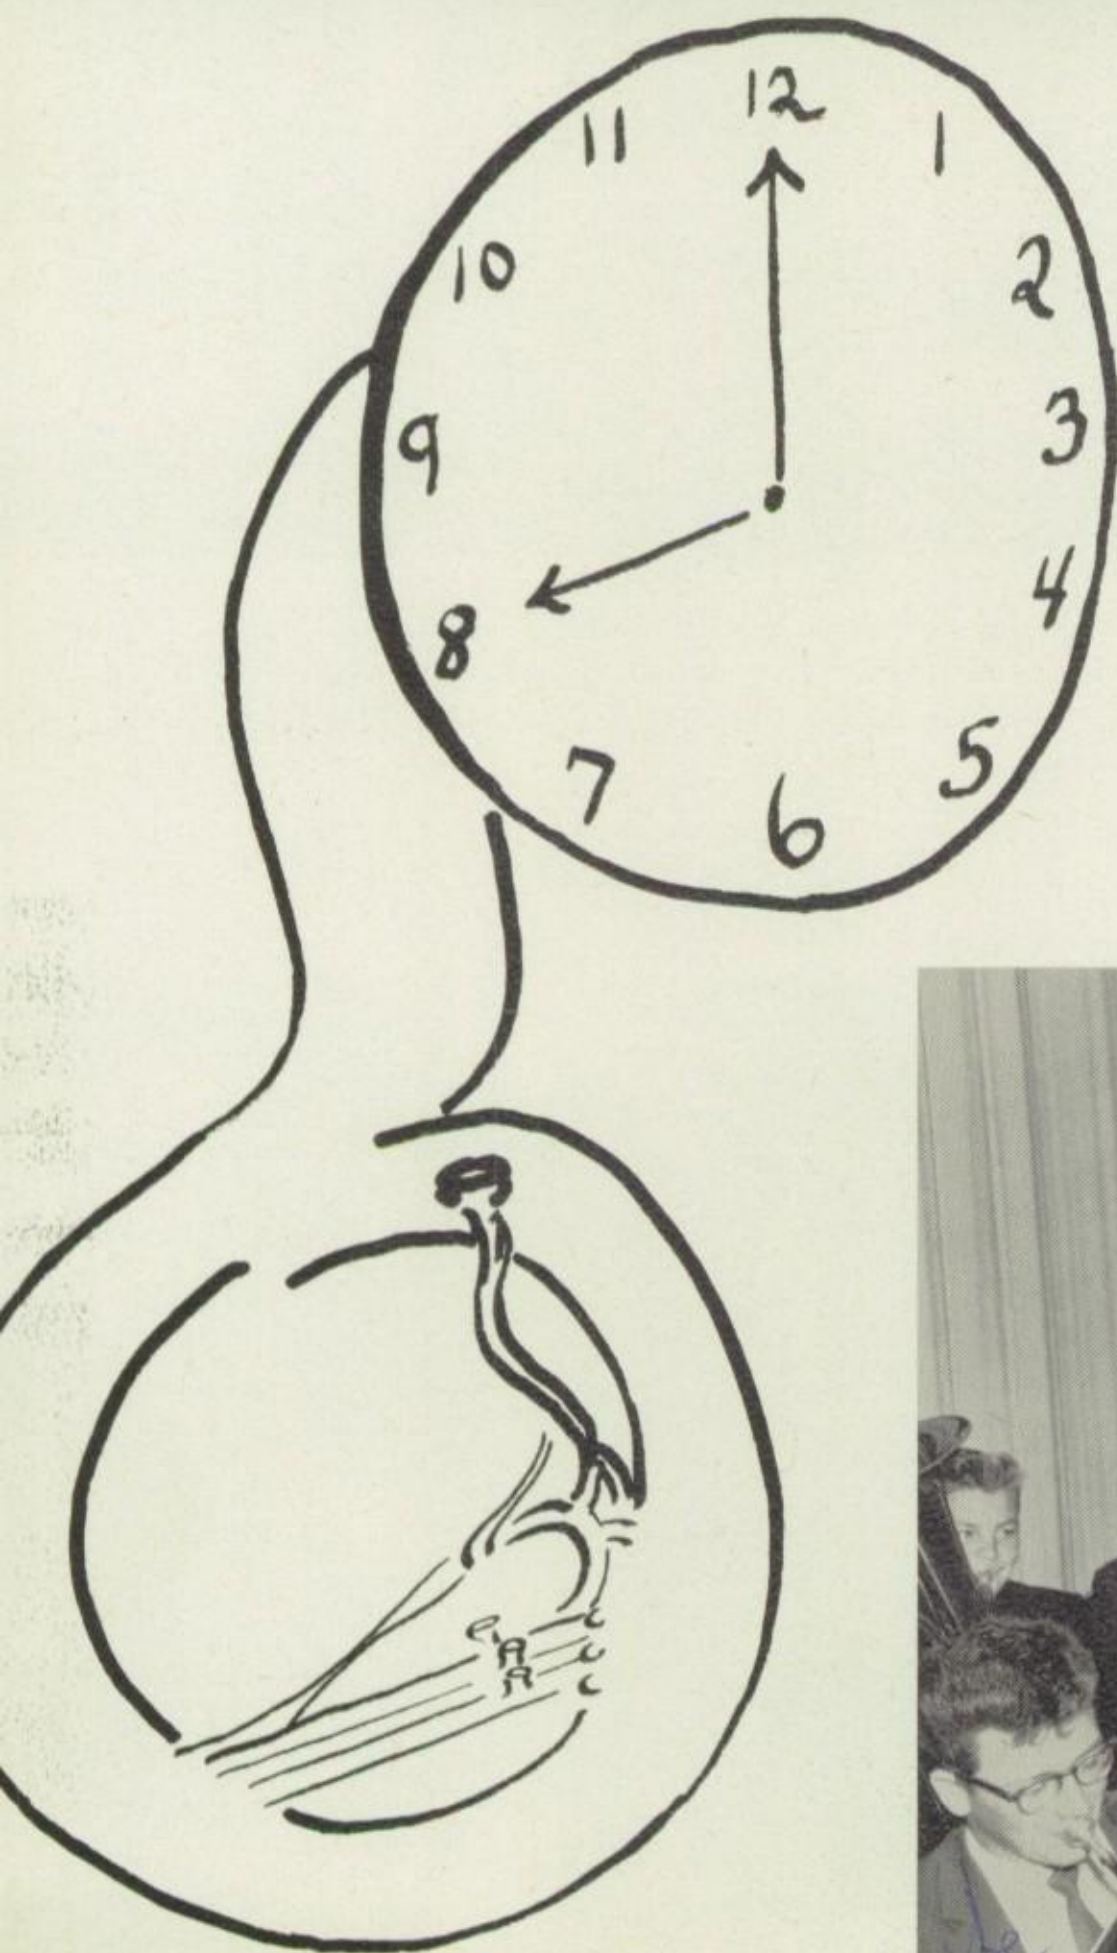

SYMPHONIC BAND

The Symphonic Band consists of 65 talented students. The band presented the Christmas Concert, the Spring Concert, and the Banbo's Cabaret, all of which were a great success. The band also exhibited its skill during half-time at the football games and in the Memorial Day Parade.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Wallace Pancoast, the talents of all the band members have been developed successfully. Proof of this is shown by the success of four of the members in making State Band: Karl Parsons, Sheila Ryan, June Woerner, and Susan Skeen. Sheila Ryan also participated in the All Eastern Orchestra.

BOTTOM ROW: E. Kiracofe, S. Skeen, B. Pitts, J. Eberly, B. DeBoda, M. Fondren, J. Fike, C. Duffy. SECOND ROW: J. King, S. Jones, M. Freefery, J. Jacobs, M. Betts, C. Ware, J. Ventresca, B. Brown, R. FIRE PATROL

The duty of the Fire Patrol is to help the students of William Penn to safety during an emergency of fire. During practice drills, these boys perform their duties in the various exits of the building.

STAGECRAFT CLUB

Willingly giving their time and talent, the stagecraft club, sponsored by Mr. Robert Benson, helps to make the various stage productions of the school a success. The boys, from grades nine through twelve, are trained to manage sound and lights in the auditorium, operate projectors, and build stage sets.

LIBRARY AIDS CLUB

Under the capable instruction of Mrs. Katherine Armstrong, the Library Aid organization learns about the library through practical experience. The students perform the routine tasks of the library and alternately serve at the charging desk. While learning to operate a library, they provide a great service for our school.

GIRLS' LEADER CORPS

Each spring the Girls' Leader Corps, under the guidance of Miss Grace Harrison, inducts new members into the society. The aims of this group are to promote school service, to build leadership qualities, and to encourage good sportsmanship.

This year the girls sold programs and calendars at the football games, held bake sales, sponsored Co-Rec nights, sold gym suits, and sold candy at the basketball games.

This year's officers were Eddie Lou Kiracofe, President; Wilma Innes, President Elect; Toni Scartine, Secretary; and Sheila Ryan, Treasurer.

HONOR SOCIETY

Each year students who demonstrate outstanding ability in the qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service are elected to the National Senior Honor Society.

This year's group, sponsored by Mrs. Florence Newton, attended two dramatic productions, Much Ado About Nothing and Mary Stuart.

In the spring new members were elected, and Dr. Jon Huston became the new sponsor.

BOTTOM ROW: J. Gonzalez, T. Foraker, D. Graulich, E. Kiracofe, J. Loebe, M. Miller. SECOND ROW: Mr. Trinkaus, D. Hoppes, L. Hurley, S. Skeen, P. Wilson, S. Sidwell, D. Oliver, K. Bradley, M. Warner.

Penn Quill

We, the Penn Quill Staff of 1960, chose "time" as the theme for our yearbook. It is the first annual to use color pictures and art work extensively. It is also the largest book ever produced at William Penn. The editors would like to thank all who helped in making the 1960 Penn Quill possible; we would especially like to thank the artists of the staff who worked long and hard to produce the artwork which was vital to our theme.
